

RE-IMAGINING

LONG-TERM RESIDENTIAL CARE

an international study of promising practices

Changing the Conversation: Re-imagining Long-term Residential Care

Monday, May 27th, 2013

6:00 – 8:00pm

Courtyard Marriott, 475 Yonge Street

Panel:

Dr. Liz Lloyd, University of Bristol

Dr. Monique Lanoix, Appalachian State University

Dr. Sally Chivers, Trent University

Moderator: Dr. Pat Armstrong, York University

Join us in changing the conversation on working for better care

All welcome. Light refreshments will be served

Re-Imagining Long-term Residential Care: An International Study of Promising Practices is a project supported by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council (SSHRC) as a Major Collaborative Research Initiative (MCRI), and is housed at York University in Toronto.