

PROMISING PRACTICES in residential care

How can residential care be provided in ways that respect the needs of seniors, families, workers and managers? Join us at this free public forum to hear about ideas and concrete examples of promising practices found in Canada and other countries.

Mon Feb 22, 2016

Vancouver Public Library
Central Branch – Alice MacKay Room
350 W. Georgia St, Vancouver

9:30 AM to 1:00PM
Lunch provided

This event is free of charge, but registration is required.

For more information or to register, visit:
<http://bit.ly/feb22forum>

Wheelchair accessible. ASL interpretation provided. Childcare is not available for this event. Building accessibility information:
<http://bit.ly/1Q6KZI4>

Speakers will share personal reflections and highlights from a recently published book produced by the research project Re-imagining Long-term Residential Care: An international study of promising practices.

Speakers include:

DR MARGARET MCGREGOR, UBC Dept of Family Practice, Community Geriatrics

CAROLYN UNSWORTH, Hospital Employees' Union

CHRIS MORISSEY, community advocate

DR MEGAN J. DAVIES, York University

DANNY LEE, community outreach worker

ISOBEL MACKENZIE, BC's Seniors Advocate, will comment as a respondent and talk about what her office is doing in the area of residential care.

Presented by:

